

Today, on this Summer Monday:

The Everlasting, Eternal, Forever God is the God of Today!

Gather your children together and read, Deuteronomy 31:8:

“The LORD Himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you or forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”

Application: I remember the first days of summer, when the first words out of my children’s mouths were, “Mom, what are we going to do today?” I truly loved how they would awaken with that ‘summer-time’ exuberance and expectancy. . . They were not interested in the plans for tomorrow, or the next week, but their little minds focused on the one time-frame they understood. . . the brand new moments of TODAY. And the truth is that their faithful Everlasting, Eternal, Forever God had already gone before them to prepare their “today” and He clearly promises to always be with each one of His children, in every circumstance of their TODAY.

That means, as you talk with your precious ones about the plans for their Monday, whether it is swimming lessons, day camp, baseball or softball, tennis or dance, horse-back riding lessons, a play-day with friends, or a day at home. . . (With creative moments awaiting them) . . . remind them that their very personal, God, who adores them is with them today. . . on this Monday. Our God does not wait to show up in the future at some other time; when we have a relationship with Him, He is always with us! In the NOW moments!

So, what are we going to do today? Something wonderful, exciting, and amazing, because our Everlasting, Eternal, Forever God is going with us TODAY!

Memory Verse:

“For the LORD is good and His love continues forever; His faithfulness continues through all generations.” Psalm 100:5

Pray to your Everlasting, Eternal, Forever God and thank Him that He always is with you. Thank Him for being there with you. . . TODAY. . . !
